

Sports Fishing

You know him well because he won the Nobel Prize for « The Old Man and the Sea ». We are going to talk about him through his passion for Cuba in the daily life: La Terraza, La Vigía, Ambos Mundos hotel, cocktails and fishing.

Hemingway was a great hunter in Africa and a great fisherman in Cuba. From Marina Tarará (20 kilometers away from the capital) or from Marina Hemingway, we organize a fishing party on a boat that is certainly modern but reminds us the anecdotes of those times. The fishing port in Cojímar, where Hemingway liked to have lunch, is still proposing the marinade or the lobster at La Terraza, a small restaurant that overhangs the sea. There you will be able to taste Don Gregorio, the favorite Hemingway's cocktail.

We plan boats for 4 fishermen with 4 accompanying persons, that is, 8 persons maximum. The price is made on the basis of a boat for 4 persons maximum. An extra charge per person is established from 5 to 8 participants.

For half a day we understand 4 hours.

The best season to catch Marlins on the northern coast is April-June in the following Marinas: Hemingway, Tarará, Varadero, Cayo Las Brujas, (Santa María).

Nevertheless, the Barracuda and the Swordfish, as well as other Caribbean species, can be caught in all seasons.

Drinks, beer, rum, and soft-drinks are available on board without limits (reasonable).
